GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 29, 2026
First Sunday of Advent
Mark 13:33-37

A friend once told me, “When I was young, I was so broke, I couldn’t even pay attention.” It’s a clever line.
Even when your pockets are empty, you can still be attentive. And yet, we often find creative ways to spend our attention on anything but what matters most.
We begin the season of Advent with Jesus’ words about how we maintain our attention. He says, “What I say to you, I say to all: ‘Watch!’” (Mark 13:37). He describes servants waiting for their master’s return. Their task is simple: stay alert. Be ready to open the door, welcome him, and serve. That is why they’re there. Advent reminds us that this is the purpose of our lives, too. God is coming to us. The question is whether we are awake and ready to receive him.
How do we train our attention for God? One powerful way is the age-old Christian practice of vigils. Praying in the quiet stillness of night — free from all distraction — focuses the heart and awakens a deeper awareness of God’s presence. This Advent, watch for the coming of the Lord by the practice of vigils. Not in theory, but concretely.
The Lord is coming. The awake, attentive heart will recognize Him.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditations)

I Domingo de Adviento

Marcos
13:33-37

Cada ciclo que vivimos del calendario litúrgico tiene un tiempo muy especial depreparación para acercarnos al encuentro con Dios de la mejor manera posible.
En este caso, el Adviento: tiempo de preparación para recibir al Señor en la Navidad. Serán cuatro domingos para estar listos. “E tiempo de Adviento tiene una doble índole: es el tiempo de preparación para las solemnidades de Navidad, en las que se conmemora la primera venida del Hijo de Dios a los hombres; y es, a la vez, el tiempo en el que, por este recuerdo, se dirigen las mentes hacia la expectación de la segunda venida de Cristo al fin de los tiempos. Por estas dos razones, el Adviento se nos manifiesta como tiempo de una expectación piadosa y alegre” (Normas Universales de 1969 para el Calendario).
“Estén preparados y vigilando, porque no saben cuándo llegará ese momento” (Marcos 13:33). Es decir, la preparación consiste en dos cosas: trabajo y oración, superar tentaciones que nos acomoden en el confort y la flojera. Dicho de otra manera, no vivir la vida pensando que somos eternos. Todos tenemos una misión que cumplir, y es durante este tiempo de Adviento que debemos descubrirla para trabajar en ella. La Palabra de Dios en este día está llena de esperanza gozosa. Isaías nos dice: “¡Ojalá rasgaras los cielos y bajaras! (Isaías 63). Ven pronto, Señor Jesús, te necesitamos en nuestras vidas y en nuestros vecindarios. Como Iglesia que somos, debemos preparar y orar sin descanso para recibir al Rey hecho Niño entre nosotros. Ayúdanos, Señor, a estar vigilantes, como guardias de seguridad, para que cuando llegues no estemos dormidos. “Lo que les digo a ustedes se lo digo a todos: estén despiertos” (Marcos 13:37). ¡Buen consejo, Señor! El Adviento es como un reloj despertador: timbra y es hora de levantarse. Que el sueño no nos venza.
